

Copyright Licence for PR, Advertising and Marketing Agencies

In the PR, Advertising and Marketing sector – where informing clients and tracking the success of publicity campaigns is critical – it's easy to breach copyright laws by inadvertently copying and sharing content without permission.

Most literary works are covered by copyright. If your employees copy and share text, tables, graphs or images that were created by others, they'll usually need permission from the copyright owner to do so. This includes content from:

- Newspapers and magazines
- Online news websites
- Industry journals.

Our Copyright Licence for PR, Advertising and Marketing Agencies gives your employees the freedom to legally copy and share third party literary content, both internal to your agency and with your clients. As we pay royalties to the creators whose works you reuse, you'll foster the creation of new content which will benefit your agency in the future.

COPYRIGHTAGENCY

We're an Australian not-for-profit organisation that represents over 40,000 members – publishers, surveyors, journalists, and more. We collectively license their copyright, so your company can legally reuse content created by others, and be confident that its creators are being paid fairly for their work – thus practising Good Copyright Governance. Licensing revenue is redistributed to our members, ensuring the Australian creative economy remains strong.
