

COPYRIGHTAGENCY

SOLICITOR

- Full-time, permanent role
- Sydney, CBD
- Newly created role

About the role

This is a newly created role to join a small in-house legal team that will provide advice and support to help Copyright Agency achieve its strategic aims. You will work on significant litigation, commercial negotiations and provide legal advice on a range of issues.

Duties

Some of your typical duties will include:

- Providing support to General Counsel and Senior Solicitors on conduct of litigation, including major matters in the Copyright Tribunal and with respect to infringement enforcement
- Advising Commercial Licensing in negotiation of voluntary licences
- Supporting the Senior Solicitor around agreements and negotiations for statutory schemes
- Managing legal issues around new projects and schemes
- Providing support to General Counsel in managing the company secretarial obligations of the Company, including regulatory filings and reporting, support for the annual audit and preparation for Board and Committee meetings
- Providing support to all areas of the business and to the Legal Team with respect to all matters arising in the operation of the business, including in relation to visual arts and resale royalties, leases, supplier agreements, marketing and employment.

About you

You hold an LLB with several years of post-qualification experience gained in-house or in private practice. Experience in copyright is strongly preferred, with experience in copyright litigation setting you apart from the crowd. Our new Solicitor will have excellent oral and written communication skills, and strong time management. You will be an individual that is collaborative, innovative, accountable and service orientated.

About us

The Copyright Agency is an Australian not-for-profit organisation that represents over 40,000 members across the publishing, media, visual arts, education and surveying sectors. We license copyright material so organisations can legally reuse content created by others, and be confident that creators are being compensated fairly for their work. We also manage the Resale Royalty Scheme for artists. The Copyright Agency's Cultural Fund provides grants to organisations and individuals to help enrich Australia's cultural life.
