

Your institution has access to the Statutory Education Licence, enabling employees to:

How much content can you use?

- Photocopy content
- Print, scan, download and email content for distribution to students
 - Store and display content on the intranet
 - Share content in course materials.

10% of a book or one chapter (whichever is greater)

A play, script, short story, text or poem in an anthology if that work comprises not more than 15 pages of that anthology

10% of sheet music

An image, map or illustration if it accompanies text for the purpose of explaining or illustrating the text or is not published separately

An article contained in any issue of a periodical publication (i.e. newspaper/journal) or two or more articles contained in any issue of a periodical publication provided they relate to the same subject matter

A book, text, image, play or sheet music if a new copy of that work cannot be obtained commercially within a reasonable period of time.

This poster is a guide for educational institutions covered by individual agreements with Copyright Agency, listed at copyright.com.au/independent-colleges. Refer to your institution's remuneration agreement for full terms and conditions. October 2020.